1 Lilly Pulitzer's Let's Cha Cha cotton print, part of the brand's latest line of textiles for Lee Jofa, evokes summer by the sea. The fabric is offered to the trade in three colorways; pictured is beach blue. leejofa.com, 888-533-5632

2 Dutch designer Edward van Vliet crafted this playful ash swing for Paola Lenti. Shown with a fuchsia cushion and orange pillows, the 55" l. x 28" d. x 19" h. seat costs $8,333; available from DDC. ddcnyc.com, 212-685-0800

3 For heightened decorative drama, Irving & Morrison contrasts the painterly glaze of its Turquoise Splash ceramic lamp ($410) with a striking Purple Snake shade ($402). irvingandmorrison.com, +44-207-384-2975

4 Morning glories climb skyward in Vladimir Kanevsky's one-of-a-kind centerpiece, a feat of realism composed of porcelain flowers and painted-copper leaves and stems. The 30" h. floral sculpture sells for $110,000 from the Vladimir Collection. thevladimircollection.com, 201-592-1176

5 A luminous sunburst border brightens Bernardaud's Sol porcelain tableware. The service ($83) and salad ($78) plates are shown in printemps, one of five available colorways. bernardaud.com, 212-371-4300

6 Swedish design house Svenskt Tenn's Brazil cushion features Josef Frank's timeless, distinctly Scandinavian take on the rain forests of South America. The 16"-sq. linen pillow costs $130. svenskttenn.se, +46-8-670-16-00
