

5

6

7

8

5

Sistema from Vicarbe is a modular sofa series composed of independent elements. The range of upholstered modules includes two seat types and three backrest heights, with or without armrests, and with multiple leg options and accessories such as side tables, trays, and a foot rest.

VICARBE.COM

6

Designed by Elia Nedkov for Paola Lenti, the Kaba armchair and two-seat sofa are made of thin steel rods varnished in ivory or graphite. Black locust heartwood sticks hold cushions firmly onto the structure and the removable upholstery cover is available in a selection of fabrics for outdoor environments.

PAOLALENTI.IT

7

LessThanFive, a barstool designed by Michael Young for Coalesse, can stack up to four high and is offered in six standard finishes. Developed as a result of Young's work with a factory known for high-performance bicycles, the chair is made from ultra-lightweight carbon fiber and weighs less than five pounds.

COALESSE.COM

8

Wall Street by Eugeni Quitllet for Vondom is crafted from gas air molding-injected polypropylene with fiberglass. The chair is upholstered with indoor-outdoor vinyl fabric and available in white, black, bronze, red, and ecru.

VONDOM.COM