

Below, left: A hanging Adagio chair by Paola Lenti joins the family's existing furnishings on the terrace, which faces the canal that lies beyond a broad lawn and pool. Deep overhangs lined in reclaimed teak shade the exterior lounging space and the artist's studio above.

Below, right: Inside and outside meet in the master bathroom, where the river rocks and ipe wood surrounding the Duravit Durastyle tub are repeated in the adjoining open-air shower and garden. The fittings are by Hansgrohe from Ferguson.
