

Top left: the kitchen in the Beaton's house with barstools by Walter Knoll. Beside that: the front façade with the Aston Martin 'Vanquish'. Center: the guest room with bed, chair and side table by Walter Knoll and a floor lamp by Anta. The artwork is by Peter Andrew Photography. In the family room a sofa, desk and desk chair by Walter Knoll. The cocktail table/bench and the occasional table are by Caste Design. Right-hand page: the living room with a cocktail table by Holly Hunt, sofa and swivel chair by Walter Knoll and a stool by Caste Design. The bowl is by Robert Kuo. The artwork, besides the window wall is by General Idea, the work opposite the sectional is by Peter Andrew Photography and the artwork in the dining room is by Thaddeus Holownia.

in different ways. It sounds big but with two persons we use every inch of the house."

With his Plan B and Studio B David is no stranger to the world of interior design. One branch of his business focuses on fitting out commercial projects, the other us geared to the residential market. With brands like Walter Knoll, Dedon, Kettal, Paola Lenti and Holly Hunt, he operates in the top of the segment: modern yet elegant and chic.