

Making a statement

These outspoken design pieces draw the eye with their mix of bold originality and craftsmanship. Compiled by ISABELLE CHESHER

LUCREZIA LOUNGE When Maxalto wanted to expand their sofa range, they sought out Antonio Citterio, whose work is highly respected and incredibly diverse. His creations are sleek and striking, and Lucrezia, which stretches across the room, is no exception. spacefurniture.com.au

NOVA LAMPS These curious shapes may look like abstract sculptures, but Thévoz — Choquet kept functionality front-of-mind when designing these lamps. Collaborating with Bloc studios, the team milled blocks of limestone to form electrical structures that could hold multicoloured tubes of light. mobilabgallery.ch

TRICOLORE VASES

It's easy to see German craftsman Sebastian Herkner is passionate about colour. The hues of these vessels interact beautifully, especially in sunlight. Herkner wanted each item to be handmade, a technique he believes is intrinsically powerful. greatdane-furniture.com

PAOLA LENTI SIDE TABLES Paola Lenti's products inspire curiosity without venturing into the obscure. The company's Reel table is made from steel in a hand-finished, eye-catching pink. Bolder still is the Nesso table in vibrant variations of Statuario, Luni and Versilia marble. dedece.com
