

© Andrea Mantegna

HEINZ BECK IN MILAN

Architect Fabio Novembre handled the interior design for “Attimi by Heinz Beck” at City Life. The bistro offers an authentic gourmet experience created by German chef Heinz Beck, holder of three Michelin stars. It has already become a landmark for Milanese cuisine. The interiors were created by a collaboration between Beck & Maltese Consulting and Chef Express (Cremonini group). attimi-heinzbeck.it

MASSIMO BOTTURA IN DUBAI

The chef at the Osteria Francescana in Modena has opened his Italian restaurant, the star of the exclusive W Dubai The Palm hotel. With “Torno Subito”, Massimo Bottura stages a Felliniesque circus (already seen with Al Meni) thousands of kilometres from Rome’s Riviera, the inspiration for architect Paul Bishop’s design, with cabins on the beach, pastel colours and design furnishings with a hint of 1960s vintage style. The furnishings are by such names as Gio Ponti and Paola Lenti. marriott.com

NIKO ROMITO IN SHANGHAI

The new Bvlgari Hotel Shanghai has opened its doors in the futuristic setting of the Suhe Creek project with a sweeping view of the extraordinary skyline of the Pudong district. On the 47th floor, at the summit of the skyscraper surmounting the skilfully restored Chamber of Commerce building and the magnificent gardens, is the Ristorante Niko Romito, serving contemporary Italian cuisine in an exceptional venue with a breathtaking view over the city. nikoromito.com